Interoperability Standards

Why Become an Afinis Member?

Afinis is Knowledge

As a member of Afinis, a membership-based organization that focuses on the rapid delivery of APIs and other financial services standards across the U.S. and globally, you will exchange information and ideas with technical and business experts from member financial institutions, fintechs, and other organizations of all types and sizes from all over the world. You will also receive early access to APIs for testing and have the unique opportunity to provide feedback on APIs prior to finalization and market availability.

Afinis is Innovation

The goal of Afinis is to focus on the immediate needs of businesses. Afinis members collaborate to identify and bring to market the standards the payments and financial services industry needs. Afinis also encourages and supports the adoption of standardized APIs to ensure the industry can reap the full benefits standardization offers. As a member, you will have the opportunity to influence the design of Afinis APIs, and provide input on the data elements used to help make Afinis APIs as useful to your organization as possible.

Afinis is the Future

Businesses are seeking interoperability. In response to this market need, Afinis is creating value by advancing the future of API standardization to enhance the efficiency and security of today's modern financial industry. As a member, you will have a voice in prioritizing which APIs to develop as a creative solution to many of the industry's problems.
