

Payments Innovation Alliance®

Global Payments Advisory Committee Nominees

(Candidates are listed in alphabetical order by organization)

Stephen Kenneally, AAP
SVP, Payments
American Bankers Association

Current responsibilities:

Steve Kenneally works at ABA on issues related to a range of payment systems including check, ACH, card, wires, as well as coins and paper money. He spends an increasing amount of time focused on instant payments such as FedNow and TCH RTP and the emerging stablecoin ecosystem. He is the former Chair of the International Banking Federation Payments Work Group and he is a former elected member of the board of the Faster Payments Council and serves on Nacha's Payments Innovation Alliance Global Payments Advisory Committee.

Relevant experience with Alliance activities and/or other Nacha events:

I have belonged to the Nacha Payments Innovation Alliance (PIA) since its inception, and I have served in an advisory capacity for the past eight years. I have attended every PIA event except for one during that time. I have also attended more than 20 Nacha Payments Annual events during my career.

Jane Hennessy
Senior Payments & Banking Consultant
Finzly

Current responsibilities:

I provide support to both the internal Finzly team and financial institutions on payments modernization, including channel-agnostic and rail-agnostic solutions to help FIs grow revenue and increase operational efficiency. I also support a number of partnerships to add value to financial institutions via embedded solutions such as account validation to comply with the upcoming Nacha rule. I have deep experience in banking and payments, having spent many years at Wells Fargo in the International Group running product, marketing, strategy etc, Visa, in cross-border payments, a risk and compliance organization and a data and analytics company. I am active in a number of industry initiatives, Payment Associations, work groups etc to support industry innovation.

Relevant experience with Alliance activities and/or other Nacha events:

I am currently a member of the Alliance Advisory Committee and have been several times over the years. I have been a member of the Alliance for close to a decade, and prior to that a member of various Councils etc. I was the Chair of the Global Payments Forum. I was co-founder of an industry body creating a new payments solution, the International Payments Framework Association which was spun off from a Nacha initiative. I am active in a number of Alliance work groups, particularly the Cybersecurity/AI project team, working on the Stand Against Scammers video contest. I secured a primary presenter organization for the contest. I have spoken at the annual Nacha Payments Conference for about twenty years as well as at most Alliance meetings and am an avid supporter of Nacha and the Payment Associations.

Miriam Sheril
Head of Product - US
Form3

Current responsibilities:

As US Head of Product at Form3, I lead the strategy, development, and delivery of our U.S. payments platform. My responsibilities include overseeing a team of product managers and business analysts to build modern, API-first, cloud-native connectivity to key U.S. payment rails including ACH, RTP, FedNow, Fedwire, CHIPS, and Zelle. I work closely with financial institutions to ensure our solutions meet resiliency, compliance, and scalability needs, while also partnering with sales and marketing to support customer adoption. Form3 supports payment schemes in Europe and the UK so I am also familiar with payments outside of the US. In addition, I represent Form3 in industry forums, sharing insights on instant payments, operational readiness, and technology modernization to support U.S. market growth.

Relevant experience with Alliance activities and/or other Nacha events:

I have actively engaged with Nacha and industry activities for over a decade, attending events including Smarter Faster Payments, the ACH Legal & Compliance Summit, and Nacha's Risk Retreat. These forums have provided opportunities to both learn and contribute, particularly on topics of real-time payments, risk management, and operational readiness. As a previous Board Member of the Faster Payments Council and the current Chair of its Operational Considerations Work Group, I have collaborated with Nacha members and stakeholders to publish guidance supporting faster payments adoption. My participation has focused on bridging technical innovation with business strategy, helping institutions understand both compliance requirements and the broader opportunities presented by modern payments infrastructure.

Prabha Srivatsa, AAP
Executive Director
JP Morgan

Current responsibilities:

As an ACH SME, Prabha leads various initiatives to design, support and build products that enhance JPM's offering. Her current focus is APIs to facilitate embedded payments & associated functions. She advises & consults with clients regarding their payment processing needs, data analytics & payments intelligence.

Besides ACH, Prabha's experience includes High Value, Cross Border & FX Payments.

Relevant experience with Alliance activities and/or other Nacha events:

Prabha is AAP certified & participated in the Pay by Bank workgroup in 2025, use case sub-stream.

Orlando Santos
Managing Director
OSConsulting (OSC)

Current responsibilities:

OSC offers comprehensive payment and value-added solutions consulting for businesses of all sizes. We guide clients through strategy, advisory, implementation, and delivery. Our vision is to create a simple, safe, and secure payments infrastructure that promotes harmony and interoperability, making it easy for anyone to send and receive money in the way they prefer. Ultimately, we strive for global financial inclusion, empowering both individuals and organizations.

Relevant experience with Alliance activities and/or other Nacha events:

I've been a member of the Alliance for over a decade and served the membership in various capacities. From working on and supporting several project teams to helping create the Afinis membership and Phixius platform. I also served as vice-chair and chairperson for Afinis. I am currently on the Global Advisory Committee and would welcome serving another term.
